

THE CHILDREN ENJOY

Life out of doors and out of the games which they play and the enjoyment which they receive and the efforts which they make, comes the greater part of that healthful development which is so essential to their happiness when grown. When laxative is needed the remedy which is given to them to cleanse and sweeten and strengthen the internal organs on which it acts, should be such as physicians would sanction, because its component parts are known to be wholesome and the remedy itself free from every objectionable quality. The one remedy which physicians and parents, well-informed, approve and recommend and which the little ones enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects, is—Syrup of Figs; and for the same reason it is the only laxative which should be used by fathers and mothers.

Syrup of Figs is the only remedy which acts gently, pleasantly and naturally without griping, irritating, or nauseating and which cleanses the system effectually, without producing that constipated habit which results from the use of the old-time cathartics and modern imitations, and against which the children should be so carefully guarded. If you would have them grow to manhood and womanhood, strong, healthy and happy, do not give them medicines, when medicines are not needed, and when nature needs assistance in the way of a laxative, give them only the simple, pleasant and gentle—Syrup of Figs.

Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative principles of plants with pleasant aromatic syrups and juices, but also to our original method of manufacture and as you value the health of the little ones, do not accept any of the substitutes which unscrupulous dealers sometimes offer to increase their profits. The genuine article may be bought anywhere of all reliable druggists at 65 cents per bottle. Please to remember, the full name of the Company is printed on the front of every package. In order to get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine only.

The Funny Side of Life.

You like me, hope. You did not say
That you would be mine;
And yet you did not turn away
Nor did one hope die again.

I know that you may come to me
Some day. And yet, intense
With fear I tremble inwardly
To hold your surprise.

You like me, hope. You did not smile,
Yet crossed my your look.
I hope the best. I can, meanwhile
And we have no end.

How It May Be Done.

She was inclined to be sentimental:
He was nothing if not practical.

"Would that you could tell me how to mend a broken heart," she said.

"I have known of cases where it has been done by splicing," he replied.

That was the remedy tried in this case. —New York Times.

Entered to Publication.

The beautiful young girl read and,
reading, glowed.

"A sweet love-letter!" she exclaimed, at last. "But it is quite evident he doesn't expect ever to become great and famous. Else why does he write on both sides of the paper?"

How to Get a Chance For Him.

"You may as well give up trying to be a lawyer," said the old legal practitioner.
"It isn't in you. You might study for fifty years and you'd never Hoodoo Who Do?

"Some people I know," he began in an insinuating tone, "not very much like a hoodoo."

"Who do?" asked his indignant and suspicious friend.

"Yes, that's what I said, hoodoo."

"Well, answer my question who do?"

"You stupendous ass, didn't you say 'hoodoo'?" Houdoo! Houdoo!"

"You hoodoo glibbering idiot, that's what I was asking you. Who do? Who do? Who do?"

At last their friends found them
